RECORD TOTAL OF 1301 VOTERS IN MATT. ELECTION

This year's election saw a record number of voters turn out at the polls in one of the most interesting contests in years. Veteran Selectman, Lester A. Crampton, retained his post continuing his 27 years in office. Mr. Crampton polled 642 votes to Allen Sherman's 625. Mr. Sherman requested a recount which was completed on Friday and the final tally was 640 for Mr. Crampton and 627 for Mr. Sherman. This cliff hanger was the closest race for Selectman since 1948.

The Town Clerk's post, which was thrown open to sticker candidates because of the sudden death of Joseph Magilton, turned out to be the most sought after post in town. Seven candidates ran for the office which was won by Mrs. Helen G. Tinkham with 235 votes. John Field was next with 185 votes followed by William P. Suzan, Jr., 164; Miss Emily Perry, 151; Roscoe E. Barstow, 147; Peter Briggs, 55 and Maurice Cayton, 26.

John Gibbons was the winner of a 3-year term on the Board of Assessors. Five candidates ran for the office. Mr. Gibbon's total was 478 votes. The other candidates polled the following: Eleanor Lowell Correa, 148; Robert Fietz, 153; Earl A. Scott, 220 and Charles H. Whalen, 268.

Mr. Barstow was retained as moderator with 656 votes. He was opposed by Attorney Berthold Putman who was running for the first time in Mattapoisett and polled 595 votes.

An interesting contrast to this year's election was furnished us by Mr. John Field. In an election of some 60 years ago according to a newspaper clipping owned by Mr. Field some 235 voters out of a total of 288 r gistered voters cast their ballots. This illustrates to great effect the growth of population in the town. In that election Mr. Horace F. Field was elected Selectman with a total of 132 votes

Mrs. Ruth Shaw became an honorary member of the Juvenile Grange.

The Lecturer's program was presented by Susan Silva who was substituting for Cathy Alves who was ill.

Fire Chief George Bradley was presented and gave an interesting talk of how the firemen had to fight fires in the old days and how it is done to-day. He exhibited photographs of Mattapoisett fires and a leather fire bucket of 1800 vintage that came from the Old Eagle pumper, now a museum piece.

A gift of "A Wiltons Fire Sign" in cast iron was presented to him by Susan Silva. The Lecturer's March prizes went to Ronald Scott and Jane Harris.

Punch and cookies were served. Mrs. Barbara Heuberger, matron, was assisted by Mrs. Shaw of the Subordinate Grange.

The next meeting, March 24th, will be in charge of the three Graces, Susan Sherman, Christine Bence and Jane Harris.

SLIDES OF SOUTHERN FRANCE SEEN AT MEETING

Members of the Rochester Woman's Club were treated to a most interesting lecture, "France Thru Yankee Eyes", presented by Miss Ruth Atkinson of South Dartmouth. Miss Atkinson used beautiful scenic slides to illustrate her talk on a wonderful trip through the canals and waterways of Southern France on the new boat "Yankee" specially built for inland water travel by Irving Johnson, world traveler and lecturer, and owner of the famed brigantine Yankee which he sold after seven trips around the world. The Johnsons sold the first Yankee, as it was too large to cruise the narrow waterways of Europe they had wanted to explore for many years. Miss Atkinson, her sister, and a friend were invited to go on this first trip in the new all steel, smaller Yankee with Irving and Electa Johnson on this fascinating trip.

They flew by jet to Europe in 1959 to join the Johnsons in Basel, Switzerland, where the boat was built. They left from this port to tour the inland waterways and canals whose construction is credited to Napoleon and which are still kept up beautifully. As they proceeded along the canals, one could see the washing platforms used by the village housewives living in neat cottages at the edge of the canals, the peacefully grazing farm animals, little groups of curious French children wearing typical beret and smock, and on the canal itself the barges, carrying lumber, cement, steel wool and other necessities for inland villages and housing the barge skipper and his family. One day they had to travel through a tunnel one mile long, devoid of lights and ventilation, and on another day they passed through thirty-two locks in one day and set a record for themselves.

Various points of interest visited were Dole, birthplace of Louis Pasteur; Grenoble, a town where Smith College girl students affiliate with a college there; Cannes, home of the International Film Festival; Arles, the former summer capitol of the Romans where there are the ruins of magnificent forum, theater and arena, of especial interest to Miss Atkinson's archeoligically-minded sister. Eugene Henri, Paul Gauguin, modern French painter and one of the pioneers of Post-Impressionist painting, and Vincent Van Gogh, the Dutch artist, spent quite some time at Arles.

At one point on the Rhone River they were unable to continue because of a drought, so they hired a Citroen, a small car that is able to negotiate some of the almost impassable narrow roads. Thus they were able to reach some of the remote Alpine villages having one foot in the Middle Ages and the other in the 20th century. Motor scooters are a common sight in France and the Yankee was handily equipped with one. Short tours were taken with this.

Scenery in the French Alps was extravagantly beautiful and the truly intense blue of the Mediterranean was shown in the slides. On the return trip by jet, Miss Atkinson said that they had breakfast in Paris, lunch over Greenland's icy mountains and dinner in South Dartmouth. During the trip they visited ten countries and Miss Atkinson knitted the flags of each on a navy sweater she took with her.

Mrs. Frank T. Howland presided at the business meeting. She announced that she had appointed a nominating committee to bring in the new slate of officers for the April meeting. They are Mmes. Abraham Jackson, Paul Gary and Robert Felton. A donation was voted to the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council. It was also voted to sell a canvas curtain.

Mrs. Olive Winslow, chairman of the Veterans' Committee, said she had started another afghan and would greatly appreciate knitted six-inch squares or donations of money to buy wool. Mrs. Winslow was in charge of a group of club members who made and donated a large knitted wool afghan last year to the Rutland Veterans' Hospital.

Mrs. William Bullivant was hostess for the evening and was assisted by Mrs. Fred Church and Mrs. Edgar Martin. Delicious assorted cookies and cakes were served with coffee at small tables.

INSURANCE-TO BE OR NOT TO BE THAT IS THE ?

The least popular subject for officials at the Mattapoisett Town Meeting was that of insurance on the wharves. It was, however, a subject of great interest to taxpayers who had to appropriate a considerable sum to repair town wharves damaged by hurricane Donna. To taxpayers who voted to appropriate money for the insurance premium last year, it was rather a blow to learn that no one had purchased the coverage and the wharf property was uninsured.

Thanks to the initiative and interest of a private citizen, Mr. Orum Kerst, we did learn that the insurance can still be purchased. The money voted for the premium is still on hand. The vote of 1960 to purchase the insurance should make it still possible to use this premium money in the way the voters intended it to be used. Two years ago we heard this policy eloquently described as being vitally necessary. The town meeting was so moved by the speech that they reversed a vote they had taken to drop the policy. This year after the lapse of the policy had apparently forfeited the insurance, we heard the same insurance eloquently described as being completely worthless. It seems that a barge would have to drift into the harbor and completely demolish the wharves before payment. If this is indeed the case, it might be a good idea for the town to purchase a barge and moor it permanently off the wharf (with a light line) in case of another hurricane. Perhaps an even better plan is to have a

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, MARCH 7, 1961

Two new records were set in the Rochester Bowling League as Herb's T.V. Shop hit 1780 for a new 3 string team total while taking two points from Hartley's Garage. The Garage salvaged one point with a new high team single of 654. Bill Alves hit 382 to lead Herb's with Dick Perry getting a 366 for Hartley's.

Lou Gegott's 375 paced the Firemen to a 3 to 0 slam over D. Mahoney & Sons (Eddie Arruda 359). Rounseville Saw Mill (Barney Jefferson 360) whipped two from Gibbs Farm Dairy (Eddie Andrade 338). Henry Hartley pinned 346 as Hartley Saw Mill smashed Lloyd's Market 3 to 0.
